Redgy is starting to plan for the KJNP Native Rally. This will be December 02, 2023 at the David Salmon Tribal Hall in Fairbanks. We do this each year, but Redgy does not do all of it. Golden Heart Church and other people help with the planning and the event. Redgy does the audio and radio stuff, but it is a group doing it. That makes it a better event and easier than Redgy being charge of everything. He is also doing some planning for Thanksgiving and Christmas programming for the broadcast.

The next things at the station are to lay out a plan for some winter projects that need to be done along with the regular maintenance. He will need to make sure we have the parts when we start them. He also needs to do a list of things for next summer so over the winter we can get them here. Some items can take four or five months to get so it is time get them ordered so that they will be here in June for the various work crews next summer.

Joy is working on the bookkeeping and office work around the station. We updated our phone system to a voip (voice over internet protocol) As we learn to use it, Joy also gets to show other staff members how to use it. We also want to reorganize the bookkeeping office to make it easier to work in.

For the most part this is normal life. The day to day things at the station are about the same.

God Bless You
Redgy and Joy

“You shall count seven weeks. Begin to count the seven weeks from the time the sickle is first put to the standing grain. Then you shall keep the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with the tribute of a freewill offering from your hand, which you shall give as the LORD your God blesses you. And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you and your son and your daughter, your male servant and your female servant, the Levite who is within your towns, the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow who are among you, at the place that the LORD your God will choose, to make his name dwell there
